Latino Giving Houston

A stronger Latino community means a better Houston, for everyone. Latino

Latino Giving Houston aims to facilitate in the creation of a better future for all Houstonians.

Giving Houston (LGH) aims to facilitate the creation of a better, brighter Houston through serving as a financial resource for non-profit organizations impacting the largest segment of the area population, the Latino community.

LGH recognizes, along with local leaders in business & education, that Houston's Latino community is a major factor in determining our area's prosperity in the decades to come. In economic times such as ours, it's important that we support those organizations that are doing the community work necessary for a prosperous future to become a reality.

Who We Are

LGH members commit to investing $300 a year, paid in full by December 31. These contributions to a charitable fund held by the Greater Houston Community Foundation. Membership contributions are tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law. Members are engaged in the grant making process through which member contributions go to support deserving organizations making an impact in the Houston Latino Community.

What We Do

LGH funds deserving organizations impacting the Houston Latino community.

Latino Giving Houston supports deserving organizations making an impact in the Houston Latino Community.

Members are entitled to one vote toward determining recipients of LGH grants, with a majority vote determining grant recipients

Make An Impact

Yes, I want to join Latino Giving - Houston, a collective effort to make a profound impact in our community. Voting membership in Latino Giving requires an annual pledge of $300 submitted by December 31.
